

SALVIONI DESIGN SOLUTIONS

With a history of over 60 years, Salvioni is today a network of multi-brand showrooms born with the intention of offering the best of design furniture to a refined and international clientele, with a particular focus on Made in Italy. The company's philosophy is above all to aim for the completeness of the offer despite the rigorous selection of brands: in the Salvioni stores all the most prestigious brands in the furniture/design and decoration sector are distributed, through a selection of products, from the most iconic and traditional up to the latest trends. From day and night systems, to beds and upholstered furniture, from kitchens to accessories, from bathrooms to outdoor furnishings, from offices to lighting, curtains, doors and carpets: all the different aspects of interior design find their place in over 9,000 square meters of exhibition area (split between the sales points of Inverigo, Milan and Lugano).

A 360-degree approach that Salvioni also maintains in relations with the client: the internal team of architects works to ensure that each Salvioni project is unique and tailored to the client's expectations, combining in an original way the infinite possibilities offered by over 150 brands catalog. The precision and reliability of the logistics structure allow us to work effectively all over the world, also directly taking care of the delivery and assembly of the furnishings, up to the finished, turnkey result.

SALVIONI MILANO DURINI

The Salvioni Milano Durini showroom is the spearhead of the Salvioni network, a multi-brand concept store designed to offer real suggestions in its 1250 square meters spread over six floors. In the space of via Durini, multiple expressions of style coexist, orchestrated according to the unmistakable taste that has always placed the company among the best-known dealers in the sector.

Careful in recognizing and satisfying the expectations of its customers, the showroom features an exclusive space used as a materials library where it is possible to view and touch fabrics, marbles and all types of materials necessary for the realization of the interior projects.

Finally, a fervent supporter of the inseparable link between art and design, Salvioni has enriched the spaces of its multi-brand store with numerous works of art aimed at enhancing its aesthetic value as well as its potential artistic expression.

In addition to distributing the best brands and design furniture products (skilfully combined in an unprecedented mix), Salvioni Milano Durini offers a "tailored" design service to meet customer requests. A team of designers with proven experience is in fact available to follow the customers step by step, responding to any need for advice.

The expertise of the Salvioni designers is not limited to the choice of the single product and its configuration: the staff is made up of real interior designers who are always up-to-date on the latest trends in the sector, capable of creating a customized environment down to the smallest detail, with an in-depth research of mood, trends, finishes and materials.

What is set out in Salvioni Milano Durini's plans can potentially be recreated anywhere, not only in Italy but also abroad. The strength of the Salvioni network and its staff is precisely that of being able to follow customers in all possible needs in the development of their interior design project, wherever they are.
